Chestnut Filly, (Mar), by Henny Hughes - Fashion House by Quiet American. Trainer Orseno F. Joseph. Bred by John D. Gunther(KY).

LAGUNA GIRL lunged up just as the field was sent off and running, out breaking the others by about two lengths, maintained the advantage and quickly tucked along the rail, with the second place finisher making her presence felt to the outside, got challenged in earnest by that opponent nearing the three-sixteenths pole and got let out, as did the nemesis, rebuffed that foe, kept to a strong drive. MERRY MEADOW patiently stalked the top one from the two path, was asked for a response issuing a bid a few strides after leaving the quarter pole, was kept at bay and had to settle for the place. VICKI'S DANCER saved ground for nearly a half, angled three wide swinging into the stretch, proved no match. CONKATE lunged at the start, gave chase on the turn primarily from the two path, was put four wide at the head of the stretch, had no rally. GALLOPING GIRAFFE raced towards the inside until the quarter pole, failed to pick up interest despite some hand encouragement while proceeding down the backstretch.
