Dark Bay or Brown Filly, (Feb), by Medaglia d'Oro - Rite Moment by Vicar. Trainer Wesley A. Ward. Bred by Woodford Thoroughbreds (KY)

MOMENT IS RIGHT bobbed at the break, recovered almost instantaneously and had control well established before reaching the conclusion of the backstretch, sat entrenched in the two path carving out the pace, rider applying solid pressure on the right side, appeared vulnerable with most of the previously-held lengthy advantage having evaporated by the three-sixteenths pole, resisting attempts by the pilot to get the coveted lead change, dug in with good determination on the left lead throughout the stretch to stave off the second place finisher. DECKED OUT pursued the winner from the three path on the turn, closed in readily on that opponent to momentarily loom a serious danger during the opening phases of the stretch run, got turned back and had to settle for place honors. ONE MINUTE took the inside route, was put to some encouragement nearly from the start, got set down to much stronger handling spinning into the stretch, displayed greenness veering out sharply twice in the final furlong, the second time after a solitary left handed shot, proved no match. LA NINA chased the pace two wide on the turn being urged along, swung four wide into the stretch, had no offering. The race was delayed approximately eight minutes by a loose and hard to apprehend TONASAH, with the field milling about the gate sans riders for the majority of that period.
