Dark Bay or Brown Mare, (Feb), by Tiznow - Sue's Good News by Woodman. Trainer Hobby Steve. Bred by CresRan LLC(KY).

TIZ MIZ SUE broke to the inside, allowed the pace to go under restraint, continued to rate through soft fractions, lost a bit of position in the second turn, switched out for the drive, finished with good late mettle to kick down the leader. DON'T TELL SOPHIA settled off the pace while outside, moved closer in the three path into the far turn, took over when straightened for home continuing three wide, showed the way past the furlong marker, could not contain the winner, comfortably second best. MY MISS AURELIA firmly restrained while off the pace and the inside, closest to the leader in the run up the backstretch, advanced inside the runner up to challenge the leader midway on the second turn, flattened out and had little left for the final furlong. SHE'S ALL IN devoid of speed, roused, angled out widest for the drive, made little impact in picking off a tiring rival. SONGS AND SONNETS stole out to a long lead while setting a soft set of early fractions, continued to show the way into the far turn, bobbed slightly along the rail, quickly consumed by two challenging rivals soon after, vied into the lane while remaining closest to the inside, weakened final furlong.
