Chestnut Colt, (Mar), by Speightstown - Social Queen by Dynaformer. Trainer Alan E. Goldberg. Bred by Colts Neck Stables, LLC. (KY).

FORCE THE PASS quickly tucked along the rail, sat forwardly placed keeping wach on the pacesetter, was given his cue and issued a successful bid to take over midway on the far turn, edged away the rest of the way to the quarter pole to lead the field into the stretch with none latched on, responded well when given his cue to steadily lengthen away down the lane, briskly ridden to the end. CANNDAL (FR) was rank on the bit for a portion of the way along the homestretch, settled down getting placed along the inside route prior to reaching the clubhouse turn, continued to remain unhurried, glued to the hedge, both on the backstretch and the second bend, got roused cutting corner into the stretch, failed to match the winner's speed and had to settle for place honors. STARTUP NATION secured a prominent dpot start after the start, had the rider take hold as GRANNY'S KITTEN was working out a tuck himself closer to the inside, raced from off the inside throughout, departed the backstretch placed in the four path, quickened when asked in the vicinity of the five-sixteenths marker, swung one path wider into the stretch, rallied willingly enough to take the show. CLOSING BELL appeared unsettled racing between rivals in the early stages, cut over to the inside, scurred into contention with a run from upper to midstretch, flattened out in the final furlong. TAKEOVER TARGET reserved along the inside early, slipped into the two path heading down the backstretch, raced between rivals for a portion of the run around the far turn, commenced the stretch four wide, lacked the needed response. POSTULATION travelled three wide to the five-sixteenths pole, angled outwad until in the five path a furlong later, made no significant headway after finishing the move. DIVISIDERO in the two path, was parked out on the overland route on the far turn, fanned even wider during the initial portion of the stretch, was moving well late. GRANNY'S KITTEN rated stalking the leader from the three path, gave way. BOLO cut the pace from the two path, attended by GRANNY'S KITTEN to the outside, got overtaken by the winner at the three-eighths pole, retreated then was vanned off after crossing the wire.
