Dark Bay or Brown Filly, (Apr), by Saint Anddan - Lizard Lick by Way West (FR). Trainer Posada Robert. Bred by Mrs. J. W. Abernethy, Jr.(FL).

CAROLINA LIZARD dueled inside, racing just off the rail, inched away slightly from her sparring partner on the turn and gamely held off both that rival's resurgence and the late bid of DADDYS JEWEL. COURTNEY RYAN tussled with the winner throughout, relinquished second midway through the stretch but valiantly came back to capture place from between the winner and DADDYS JEWEL, who tracked along the inside, attempted a bid up the rail on the far turn but was in tight and forced to steady, then angled out three wide into the lane, recommenced that bid, loomed boldly while looking poised to drive past but hung late. PRINCESS MALIA angled inside a foe into the first turn, advanced up the rail down the backstretch and into the far turn at which point she shifted out to be four to five wide into the lane, was no match for top three. SPECIAL JAK was unhurried early, passed tired rivals. WINILISCIUS was caught three wide into the first turn, stalked the dueling leaders while wide and in the clear, made a mild bid on the far turn, flattened out. ACTION LADY raced three to four wide, never threatened. DAKOTA EYES was close and in the second flight racing between runners through the early stages, gave way. THE RIDER OF THE #1, DADDYS JEWEL, CLAIMED FOUL AGAINST THE RIDER OF THE #2, CAROLINA LIZARD, FOR ALLEGED INTERFERENCE AT THE TOP OF THE LANE, BUT NO ACTION WAS TAKEN.
