Gray or Roan Colt, (Mar), by Lido Palace (CHI) - Princess Aloha by Aloha Prospector. Trainer bin Suroor Saeed. Bred by Lynne M. Scace (FL).

VINEYARD HAVEN saved ground, dropped back on the turn, was put to urging near the five sixteenths pole, was two wide leaving the turn, came in and bumped ROARING LION near the three sixteenths pole, angled to the rail nearing the sixteenth pole, closed strongly under vigorous rousing and was up in the final strides. RAVALO stalked the pace between horses under patient handling, was three wide on the turn, swung outside in upper stretch, was carried out by SACRED JOURNEY near the sixteenth pole, bid for the lead about thirty yards from the wire and was no match for the winner. FLEET VALID set a pressured pace two wide between horses, held the advantage to the sixteenth pole and gave way grudgingly between the top pair. SACRED JOURNEY, three wide around the turn, chased the pace, challenged for the lead near the eighth pole, drifted out near the sixteenth pole and weakened late. AH DAY lacked speed, swung to the extreme outside in upper stretch and passed tired horses. PEACE CHANT, wide around the turn, swung very wide in upper stretch and failed to rally. ROARING LION hugged the rail, prompted the pace, was bumped in upper stretch by the winner and weakened the final furlong. TRUE QUALITY, wide, was put to urging near the three eighths pole, remained wide and gave way.
