Bay Filly, (Feb), by Drosselmeyer - Hurricane Hannah by Southern Halo. Trainer Cathal A. Lynch. Bred by Eico Stable (KY).

FIND JOY prompted the pace outside WALLFLOWER while her rider kept a firm left grip to avoid getting out past the three eighths, moved to even terms entering the lane, was straightened away and put to solid hand rousing past the three sixteenths marker, asserted herself and took command with a furlong to go then drew away under right handed rousing. WALLFLOWER broke on top, set a pressured pace along the rail, dueled with the winner from mid turn to mid stretch, weakened late but was able to salvage a tie for second money. CAJOLERY bobbed at the break and brushed with LA MURETTE, rushed up soon after to reach a tracking position, chased the dueling leaders three wide around the turn and kept on willingly while finishing on even terms with WALLFLOWER. GALA'S BANK, off the early pace, saved ground leaving the three eighths pole, swung four wide while put to pressure into the lane, altered out a bit wider leveling off past the furlong grounds and finished with a flourish. SITTIN' N' SIPPIN was hung out five wide to the three eighths marker, dropped in a few paths leaving the five sixteenths, gave hard pursuit into the lane and finished with interest. PORTE COCHERE was hard urged from the gate, advanced along the inside leaving the quarter pole, appeared to shy from the rail near the three sixteenths, corrected to pursue past the eighth pole then faded. LA MURETTE broke outward and brushed with a rival, dropped well off the early pace while saving some ground, angled off the inside entering the stretch and had belated action. NEW YORK POSSE, three wide between rivals early, retreated nearing the lane. FIRST TO FIRE, four wide between rivals the opening three sixteenths, failed to kick on past mid turn and gave way.
