Bay Colt, (Feb), by Girolamo - Holy Freud by Freud. Trainer Mark A. Hennig. Bred by Anthony Grey (NY).

LUCKY LURIE disputed the pace from the two path, fought fiercely with the second place finisher from the quarter pole onward, forged his way to the front in the final seventy yards. LOVE THAT JAZZ came in after springing from the gate and made light contact with EXTINGT CHARM, cut over to the inside, vied to maintain the advantage, turned for home with the winner directly alongside, sparred intensely with that one all the way down the lane before yielding reluctantly in the last jumps. STORMIN STEPHEN tracked the front runners from a slight distance off the rail, got angled outward leaving the five-sixteenths marker, wound up four wide by the end of the move, crossed the wire well clear of the others for show honors. EXTINGT CHARM raced sluggishly down the backstretch after being brushed at the break, saved ground on the turn, was fanned outward until seven wide with a furlong to go, made no impact. UP WITH THE SUN in the two path and put to encouragement, lacked a response. BOILERMAKER entered the turn from the three path, was five wide exiting it, had little left and backed away. BIG BAND BENNY rode the rail, was hard ridden cutting the corner into the lane, had no offering. THERE GOES BEN off a bit slowly, took up the chase from the two path on the turn, trailed throughout.
