Chestnut Colt, (Apr), by Birdstone - Hong Kong Squall by Summer Squall. Trainer Ice A. Tim. Bred by Dr. K. K. Jayaraman & Dr. V. Devi Jayaraman (KY).

SUMMER BIRD checked slightly after the two outside horses came over on him nearing the backstretch, moved to the five path entering the backstretch, settled in good position while off the rail for five furlongs, closed the gap from outside on the far turn, drew along side QUALITY ROAD to challenge while being floated out at the quarter pole, surged to the front a furlong out, battled outside the runner-up nearing the sixteenth pole and edged clear under intermittent left hand urging through the final seventy yards. QUALITY ROAD angled in a bit soon after the start, pressed the pace under a firm hold while well off the rail on the backstretch, took the lead nearing the half mile pole, dug in when threatened on the turn, drifted wide entering the stretch, fought gamely inside the winner into midstretch then yielded grudgingly in the late stages. TIZWAY set the pace under pressure along the rail for nearly six furlongs and continued on willingly while no match for the top two to gain a share. MACHO AGAIN was outrun for seven furlongs, split horses four wide at the quarter pole and closed mildly in the middle of the track. DRY MARTINI raced well back, split rivals at the quarter pole and improved his position late. SETTE E MEZZO raced within striking distance while saving ground and lacked a late response. ASIATIC BOY (ARG) steadied sharply entering the backstretch, faded after going seven furlongs and was eased late.
