Dark Bay or Brown Mare, (Jan), by Street Sense - Golden Sheba by Coronado's Quest. Trainer Kieran P. McLaughlin. Bred by Darley (KY).

WEDDING TOAST in a step being released from the starting gate, had the pilot take hold, settled into midpack, departed the backstretch placed in the three path, was let out a notch and cruised up towards the front runners, spun into the stretch on nearly even terms with them, responded eagerly when set down, took charge traversing through the furlong grounds, extended the winning margin. driving. PRINCESS VIOLET assumed a forward position after the start, patiently prompted the pace from the two path for nearly three-quarters, was still under confident handling poking a head down in front turning for home, between rivals, proved no match for the winner once that one was fully ridden, finished more than willingly thereafter to garner the place. HOUSE RULES chased the pace from the two path to the vicinity of the five-sixteenths pole, was roused angling four wide into the stretch, lacked the needed response. SHAYJOLIE kept watch on the front runners from along the rail, tipped outward coming to the head of the stretch, failed to fire appreciably. VIA STRATA broke alertly and maintained command, was guided over to the inside route after going a half, came under a two-pronged attack as the third fraction was about to be recorded, succumbed in short order and backed away. MACHA broke tardily, loped along from the two path, swung into the stretch, had no offering.
