Chestnut Filly, (Mar), by Speightstown - Dance to Dawn by Louis Quatorze. Trainer Figgins, III L. Ollie. Bred by Mr. & Mrs. David Garner(KY).

DANCE TO BRISTOL tracked the pace three wide, took closer order under confident handling leaving the five sixteenths marker, engaged ORANGE'S LIL SIS straightening for the wire, kicked clear under sharp left handed rousing approaching the eighth pole, ducked in when put to the right stick, was corrected a sixteenth out and was geared down the final seventy yards. ORANGE'S LIL SIS bobbled at the break, cleared off early while off the rail, was joined from the inside past the five eighths pole and dueled briefly with FUNNYS APPROVAL, spurted away from that one early turn, was joined after a half mile, battled inside the winner to mid stretch, gave way grudgingly while drifting and held the place. KALAMBAKA QUEEN chased the pace while off the inside, came five wide for the drive and had a mild late response. PRETTY MISS TRIPPI was rated back off the early pace, saved ground into the lane but lacked the needed bid. FUNNYS APPROVAL, rank at the break to be off a bit slow, rushed up inside ORANGE'S LIL SIS leaving the five furlong pole, vied past the half mile marker, steadied back nearing the three eighths marker, regrouped to chase to upper stretch then came up empty in the last furlong. STRIKE THE MOON stumbled inward at the break and was away last, made some progress four wide nearing the lane, steadied off heels in upper stretch, failed to sustain and dropped back. There was a stewards' inquiry concerning the start but no action was taken
